

Happenings of the Week in Columbus and Vicinity

Don't Miss This.

The following shows Lieutenant James, formerly Prison Marshal, 25th Infantry, to be one of the crowd shots of the entire U. S. Army. His many friends here in Columbus will read this item with satisfaction.

Camp Perry, Ohio, Aug. 21.—Lieut. V. L. James, United States Infantry, won the rapid fire event of the National Rifle Association matches here after 17 competitors tied for first place, shot several rifles to decide the event.

Lieut. James scored as follows: 450 plus 50, plus 50, plus 50, while Lieut. T. S. Ross, U. S. Infantry, his nearest competitor, had 100 plus 50, plus 50, plus 45. Captain D. A. Prentiss, small arms firing school, was third and private S. M. Kinick, U. S. N. C., was fourth.

Chamber of Commerce

The regular monthly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce will be held next Wednesday night in the Klauk Club. Secretary Williams says that besides good things to eat, matters of interest will be brought before the organization. Progress on securing the Port of Entry for Columbus will be one topic and others will be railroads, mining, food and the good of Columbus. Secretary Williams says old members who had fallen out had shown their belief in a new deal all around by again becoming members. Don't forget the night, the first Wednesday in September.

Big Time at Frisco.

Notwithstanding the rains of preceding days and the threatening weather of Sunday, the Knights of Pythias picnic scheduled for Berryman Grove, but held in the hills because of impassable roads, was one of the most enjoyable and profitable of the season. The picnic was held on the side of a hill was a novelty in the area and everyone for the younger crowd were enjoyable to all. "Kats" were of every variety from fried chicken to melon, and the autos carried more weight returning than going. The roads were tough propositions, but it was a picnic and this was no exception.

"Daily Courier" Mining Claim.

Wilson Kilgus and L. L. Burkhead have finished assembling work on what is believed to be a valuable silver mining claim in the Two Horns area. The tract is between the famous Smoko and the Manning properties and has been named the Daily Courier. Major Tom Lackland bought the assessment work and promises the claim a good time. The site has been patented after the William Randolph Hearst. Heard, you know, owns all of Leadville, Colo., and if his multitude of newspapers do not earn the pay roll the mine does.

City Father Robbed.

Of all things! Another city of fiscal robbers. The true. Trustee C. A. McQuay rolled Monday night with his trusty associate on a chair chase to his bed and nine dollars in cash within easy distance. When he awoke Tuesday morning the associate and nine bucks were missing. A search, however, showed the chair had, as usual, out the screen, walked inside and helped himself. Bob Elliott is the only member of the board in the city who has not been robbed.

Major Madera is Charge.

Major Madera is now in charge of the Base Hospital at Camp Furlong. Vice Major Hanson, who has been transferred to Camp Dodge at Des Moines, Iowa. Major Madera and Captain O'Reilly are unusually busy these days owing to incoming recruits. The Base Hospital is still as a church as there is a scarce half-dozen patients. Major Madera is a popular officer and a physician of repute and his being in charge will prove a credit to the hospital as well as to himself.

Another Mine Incorporated.

Daniel F. Fitzpatrick and his wife, Nellie E. Fitzpatrick, together with Thomas F. Brennan, Russell S. Fisher and L. L. Burkhead of the Columbus Courier, have incorporated the Wolf Mining, Mining and Smelting Company with a capitalization of $100,000, and a paid up capital of $25,000. Daniel Fitzpatrick has one of the best timbered and model mine shafts in the Two Horns area and his reputation as an intelligent miner is unsurpassed in the hills.

Lulu Beckley to Marry.

Memories of the Wade Doster death case were revived when it was announced Saturday that Lulu Beckley, the woman for whom Doster was out of jail, was going to marry a chauffeur in El Paso. A divorce was issued to Austin D. Spool. Wade Doster was shot and killed at the Hotel Clark in this city last Spring and Maud Carfield, who posed as his wife, is now serving a sentence in the penitentiary at Santa Fe.

Opens Branch Store at Aragon.

W. S. Lewis of the Border Mercantile Store left Monday morning with a truck load of groceries to open a branch store at Aragon, Chihuahua, Mexico. Mr. Lewis was there a few weeks ago and saw the possibilities of getting in on the ground floor since peace has been declared in Mexico. He will continue to make his home in Columbus, however, and manage his business on West Broadway.

Off on a Vacation.

Linguis Burkhead and Charlie Stevenson left the first of the week for a week's vacation in the Florida mountains before school takes up again. Linguis has been a faithful employee in the Courier office this summer and will return next week to Bell Buckle, Tenn., to resume his studies in the college there. The boys had high hopes of having a grand time on their week's outing.

Booster Vines Changing Conditions.

With updated shirt and collar ironing machines at the Columbus Steam Laundry and the good work the concern, the largest in the South-west, is turning out. Booster Vines, in charge of the delivery service, is now getting about all the work in the city. Anyway, he has proved you don't have to send your laundry to other cities.

Luna County's Sheriff

Two Auto Drivers. Sheriff Simpson arrested two auto drivers from Fort Bliss at Denning Monday morning. It is charged the auto drivers side the car in El Paso after nearly killing the driver and escaped to Denning. They will be returned to El Paso.

Lawn Party a Success.

The ladies of the M. E. Church who so ably handled the lawn party at the World residence Friday evening, turning a wet into a dry party, are congratulating themselves on the fact that they cleared $40 as a result of the evening's entertainment.

Mrs. Will King Has Visitor.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Sylvester of Wichita, Kas., have been spending their vacation in California and on their way home stopped off and will spend a few days visiting Mr. and Mrs. Will King. Mr. Sylvester being Mrs. King's nephew.

The Tugger's Household Word.

Jack Tidmore and Herman Lindauer, enterprising owners and advertisers of The Tugger, Denning, have succeeded in making The Tugger a household word in Luna county. They are outfitters for the family.

Brothers of Dead Man Here.

M. McCarty, deputy sheriff, and P. E. McCarty of Rudos, half-brothers of James E. Saunders who was shot and killed Monday noon in this city by Mary Mann for invading the privacy of her bathroom, arrived in this city Tuesday and departed Wednesday with the remains of their deceased brother.

Labour Day Boasting.

Abelto Ortiz White of the 24th Infantry announced that on Labor Day he will put on a boxing contest headed by Kid Ross and Hard-Biting Wright. He is also trying to get the new recruits, looking for a fight. He will pick out two of the best for a preliminary. Seats will be $1 and $2. The contests will take place at the arena in Camp Furlong.

In Honor of Mrs. Barlow.

Wednesday afternoon from 3 until 6 Mrs. A. J. Evans and Mrs. Edwin G. Dean were hostesses at the Klauk Club to honor Mrs. Barlow, wife of the late George Barlow of the M. E. Church of this city. Mr. Barlow having resigned his pastorate to accept of southern Illinois. The women at the club were decorated with the color scheme being blue and pink. Miss Nora Johnson sang beautifully and Mrs. Lee Hux was at the piano. Punch and watermelon predominated in the refreshments. It was not only a large party, much to the credit of the hostesses, but it was a social affair, even if it was considered a farewell.

Take Advantage of $2 Price For Courier

Following are the new subscribers for the Columbus Weekly Courier who get in on the $2 rate. On September 1 and thereafter the rate will be $2.50 per year.

Charley Martin joined the previous class.

Zain M. Johnson added as a check for $2.

Mrs. A. O. Bailey couldn't do without the Courier and subscribes.

Jesse Hughes and wife are receiving the Courier at Granite, Okla.

William Harvey always takes the Courier and he cannot for our part.

Willie Waterbury, Canby, Minn., will receive the Courier for six months.

Robert Fleck wants the real estate news for one year, so he has joined the procession.

Mrs. H. L. Russell of Dinning, Minn., renews her subscription for one year to the Courier.

E. Launette, the billiard man who is called by his friends "Frenzy," signed up for a year.

J. E. Vincent of the Columbus Steam Laundry and his family will read the Courier for the next year.

The Women's Aid Society—this comes Mrs. Harry Edwards and Kate Souther. They go $2.50 on the Courier.

Mrs. Lattie Remond, at the popular ready-to-wear New York store, next door to the Courier, subscribed for one year.

H. S. Carter, who runs a busy grocery store and raises all his "fresh stuff" at the Gap, laid down two one dollar bills.

A letter from Mary W. Peters, now at Lake Oklawaha, Iowa, besides containing a check for the Courier, sends "best regards."

"Genuine Fountains," which means the Polson Land & Cattle company whenever you see it in print, is a yearly subscriber.

Company G, 8th Inf., takes the Courier and passes it around at Roshita. G Company will return to Columbus in several weeks.

Flores & Orr, who own the Variety Store adjoining the Martin's Bar Restaurant, deposited eight silver quarters for the Courier for one year.

C. R. Rogers, marshal, furnishes new items to the Courier—every time he makes an arrest. He knows all the criminal news but as he is interested in other news as well, he subscribed for the Courier for one year this week.

From Great Bend, Kans., comes a letter and a check for $2 from J. W. Rodenstrom. Mr. Rodenstrom is a landowner in this vicinity and was one of the first absentee landlords to mail a lease to the Klauk syndicate. If others had been like him Columbus would probably now be an oil town.
